

DAWSON COUNTY ANSWER & COUNTERCLAIM FOR DIVORCE WITH MINOR CHILDREN

No authority to give legal advice

State law, O.C.G.A. § 15-19-51, prohibits court personnel (including staff attorneys or law clerks, calendar clerks, clerk's office staff and sheriff's department staff) from giving legal advice or answering legal questions.

Use these forms at your own risk

In no event will the Court Administrator, Clerk of Court, Family Law Information Center (FLIC) staff or anyone contributing to the development of these forms or instructions be liable for any damages resulting from the use of this packet. These forms may not be appropriate for your particular case. In addition, due to the changing nature of the law, the information in these instructions and forms may be or become outdated. You should review any statutes (laws) or rules mentioned in this packet to make sure the forms are current. Obtain the services of an attorney to protect your legal rights.

Will this packet work for you?

This packet is designed for answering the Dawson County Petition for Divorce with Children (used by unrepresented parties) and counterclaiming for divorce (meaning you also want to proceed with a divorce and make certain claims against the Petitioner). If you were served with something other than the Dawson County Petition for Divorce with Children, seek the advice of an attorney.

If you have been served with the Dawson County Petition for Divorce with Children, it is important to file a written answer to respond to the allegations contained in the Petition. Even if the allegations are not true, if you do not respond to the Petition, you are telling the Court you do not contest the allegations and you are waiving your right to be notified of any Court dates.

Knowing how to best complete an answer and counterclaim in a divorce is extremely complicated. Answering something incorrectly or inadequately can put your rights and the direction of your case at risk. Please read each form very carefully.

This packet also does not cover every legal issue that may come up in a divorce. There may be better ways to address certain issues. Whether your case is contested or uncontested, to protect your legal rights, speak with an attorney experienced in domestic relations (family law) before signing or filing any documents. The instructions in this packet are no substitute for the advice and help of a lawyer. You may especially need to hire an attorney to represent you if:

- The case is contested OR an attorney represents your spouse.
- You or your children are victims of family violence by your spouse.
- You want an arrangement for custody/parenting time that does not exactly fit these forms.
- You do not understand how to complete the Child Support Worksheet and applicable schedules.
- You do not understand how to prepare the Parenting Plan.
- You have had children with someone other than your spouse during the marriage.
- You are unable to locate your spouse to have him/her served with this action.
- Your spouse is in the military or has military benefits.
- You and your spouse have a house, pension, 401(k) or large amount of property or income to divide.
- You think you may have difficulty getting financial information from your spouse.

Timing

If you are personally served (the Petition for Divorce is/was delivered by the sheriff) you have thirty (30) days to file your answer with the Clerk of Superior Court to avoid the risk of the Court proceeding without notice to you or jeopardizing your legal rights. If you were served by publication because your spouse could not locate you or accomplish having you personally served (and a legal notice was published in the newspaper), the published notice requires filing an answer in writing within 60 days from the date of the Order for publication.

Basic steps for filing the Answer and Counterclaim in this packet:

- STEP 1: Have the Petition for Divorce and its exhibits (the paperwork you received from the Petitioner) on hand when you are completing the forms. You will respond to each numbered paragraph in the Petition with each numbered paragraph in the Answer portion of the packet.
- STEP 2: If you wish to counterclaim for divorce (meaning you also want to request a divorce and make certain claims against the Petitioner), you will also complete each paragraph in the Counterclaim portion of the packet.*
- STEP 3: If timing allows, consider taking the required parenting course BEFORE you complete your forms (visit FLIC's website or contact FLIC for approved parenting courses). It is a requirement to complete the class within 30 days of filing or service. It is always best to consult with a lawyer before submitting a custody proposal. You may also choose to consult with a professional knowledgeable about the impact on children in custody decisions.
- STEP 4: Fill out the following forms and place them in the following order:
 - Answer and Counterclaim for Divorce with Minor Children (you are the "Respondent" and the other party is the "Petitioner" – use full names in the headings on all of your forms; write the civil action file number in all headings, using the same number as the one that appears in the heading of the Petition)
 - Parenting Plan (required in almost all cases involving minor children, even when you and your spouse have an agreement – see next page)
 - Child Support Worksheet and schedules (required in almost all cases involving minor children, even when you and your spouse have an agreement - see next page)
 - Verification (sign in the presence of a notary)
 - Domestic Relations Financial Affidavit (sign in the presence of a notary) if you or the Petitioner have raised any financial issues in the case – division of property, alimony or division of debt (this form is very complicated; the Family Law Information Center on the 3rd floor of the courthouse has basic instructions for completing this form)
 - Certificate of Service (this form explains how you will deliver a copy of your Answer and other forms to the Petitioner – use the address the Petitioner provided in his/her Summons)
- STEP 5: Make TWO complete sets of copies, stapling the copies only (leave the originals UNSTAPLED)
- STEP 6: Take the forms to the Clerk of Courts. Ask for the two copies of all your documents to be stamped.
- STEP 7: Mail or hand deliver to the Petitioner one stamped copy of the completed forms at the address you provided in the Certificate of Service.
- STEP 8: Attend the required parenting class if you did not do so in Step 3.
- STEP 9: Attend mediation if it was not waived in your case. You may use the mediation referral form included in this packet to set up mediation if your spouse has not already done so.
- STEP 10: Come to Court prepared on the date of any hearing(s) (as indicated on the form Rule Nisi(s) you received from the Petitioner).

There may be many other steps that apply in your case (with significant consequences if they are not followed). Listed above are just the basic steps for filing and serving the Answer and Counterclaim included in this packet.

If you or the child(ren) live in a shelter for victims of family violence, DO NOT LIST THE ADDRESS OF THE SHELTER on these forms. Instead, list only the name of the shelter and the state where it is located. Do not even fill in the name of the county.

Completing the Georgia Child Support Worksheet

- A Child Support Worksheet is required in every case involving child custody with very limited exceptions. It is NOT included with this packet.
- Even if you have an agreement with the other party as to an amount of child support, the worksheet is still required as part of that agreement.
- You will need to complete a worksheet, print it and include it with your Counterclaim as an exhibit when you file.

Completing the worksheet can be very challenging and it is best to have a lawyer assist you in preparing it. Completing it incorrectly can have a significant impact in your case and on the amount of support. If you cannot afford to hire a lawyer:

- Free legal consultations are available with the Family Law Information Center lawyer for individuals who qualify (contact FLIC for more information about qualifying requirements). There may be additional free resources through various non-profit organizations.
- To complete the worksheet yourself, the calculator is available on the Georgia Commission on Child Support website at:

<https://csconlinecalc.georgiacourts.gov/>

Completing the Parenting Plan

- Like the Child Support Worksheet, a Parenting Plan is required in every case involving child custody with very limited exceptions.
- Even if you have an agreement with the other party as to a specific schedule or flexibility in your arrangement, a Parenting Plan is still required as part of that agreement.
- You will need to complete a Parenting Plan and include it with your Counterclaim as an exhibit when you file.

Completing the Parenting Plan can be very challenging. It is always best to consult with a lawyer before completing and submitting a custody proposal. You may also choose to consult with a professional knowledgeable about the impact on children in custody decisions.

- Free legal consultations are available with the Family Law Information Center lawyer for individuals who qualify (contact FLIC for more information about qualifying requirements).
- FLIC has a number of sample Parenting Plans available as examples, but they are no substitute for creating a plan that best fits your child(ren)'s specific needs.

Completing the Georgia Child Support Worksheet

A child support worksheet (not included with this packet) is required in every case involving child custody and/or child support with very limited exceptions. Even if you have an agreement with the other party as to an amount of child support, the worksheet is still required as part of that agreement.

Completing the worksheet can be very challenging and it is best to have a lawyer assist you in preparing it. Completing it incorrectly can have a significant impact in your case and on the amount of support.

To complete the worksheet yourself, go to the Georgia Commission on Child Support website at:

<https://georgiacourts.gov/csc/>

1. Once you are at this website, click on the following button:

2. Then click on the "Getting Started" button for detailed instructions.
3. Once you are ready to get started with the worksheet, go back to the previous page and click on "Signup" in the upper right corner of the page.

4. You will need to print your worksheet once it is completed.
